

Lokum

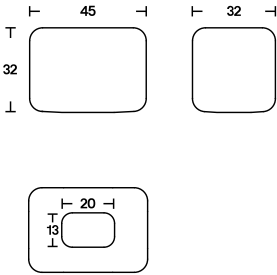

Year	2024
Designer	Sabine Marcelis

Matter, light and colour merge in an intense material interplay in the Lokum series of side tables, crafted by Sabine Marcelis for Acerbis. It is a collection that captures the sophistication of minimalist shapes, enhanced by the skilled craftsmanship of blown glass. Sabine Marcelis, known for her poetic and meticulous use of reflective surfaces and colour nuances, has fashioned a collection that radiates ethereal charm. This collection produces remarkable interplays of light and shade. Lokum is available in rectangular and square versions in amber and smoky hues providing extensive versatility for standalone pieces or in conjunction with other items for customised configurations. Lokum is the tangible result of the Dutch designer's ability to transform materials into works of art.
